This Policy may replace the group policy of another insurer. In that case, We may rescind this Policy based on misrepresentations made in Your or a Covered Person's signed application for up to two years from the Policy Date.

After a person's insurance has been in force under this Policy for two years during his or her lifetime, no statement in any application made by him or her will be used:

- to contest the validity of his or her insurance; or
- to deny a claim for a loss incurred by him or her.

In the event a Covered Person's insurance is rescinded due to a fraudulent statement made in his or her application We will refund premiums paid for the periods such insurance is void. The premium paid by the Covered Person will be sent to his or her last known address on file with You or Us. If You pay all or part of the cost of a Covered Person's insurance Your part of the premium will be paid to You.

Associated Companies

An associated company is a business entity affiliated with You through common ownership of stock or assets.

If You ask Us in writing to include such a company under this Policy, We will treat Employees of that company like Your Employees. We must give Our written approval. Our approval will show the starting date of the company's coverage under this Policy. Each eligible Employee of that company must still meet all of the terms and conditions of this Policy before he or she will be insured.

You must notify Us in writing when a company ceases to be an associated company. On the date a company ceases to be such a company, this Policy will end for all of that company's Employees, except those covered by You or another associated company as Employees on such date.

Premiums

Premiums are payable by You as follows:

- The first premium is due on the Policy Date; and
- Later premiums are, during the time this Policy remains in force, due on the 1st of each month.

Premiums due under this Policy must be paid by You:

- At a Guardian office; or
- To a representative that We have authorized.

The premiums must be paid as shown above, unless by agreement between You and Us, the interval of payment is changed. In that event, adjustment will be made for payment annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

The premium due under this Policy on each due date will be the sum of the premium charges for the insurance provided under this Policy. The premium charges are based on the rates set forth in the Schedule Of Premium Rates.

We may change such rates:

- On the first day of any policy month;
- On any date the extent or terms of coverage for You are changed by amendment of this Policy;
- On any date Our obligation under this Policy with respect to You is changed because of statutory or other regulatory requirements; or
- On any date that a change in federal or state laws, insurance programs or retirement benefits would impact our liability.

We must give You 31 days written notice of the rate change. Such change will apply to any premium due on and after the effective date of the change stated in such notice.

Adjustment Of Premiums Payable Other Than Monthly Or Quarterly

A premium rate may be changed after an annual or semi-annual premium became payable with respect to insurance on and after the date of such change. In that case, the premium will be adjusted by a pro rata change for the rest of the period for which the premium became payable. If the adjustment results in a decrease, the amount of the decrease will be paid to You by Us. If the adjustment results in an increase, the amount of the increase will be considered a premium due on the date of the rate change. This Policy's grace period will apply to any such premium due.

If You give Us advance written notice of an earlier termination date during the grace period, this Policy will end as of such earlier date.

If this Policy ends during or at the end of the grace period, You will still owe Us premium for all the time this Policy was in force during the grace period.

This Policy ends on any date when a coverage under this Policy ends and, as a result, no benefits remain in effect under this Policy.

Clerical Error - Misstatements Of Age

Neither clerical error by You or Us in keeping any records on the insurance under this Policy, nor delays in making entries, will invalidate insurance otherwise validly in force or continue insurance otherwise validly terminated. On discovery of such error or delay, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made.

Premium adjustments involving return of unearned premium to You will be limited to the period of 90 days before the date of Our receipt of satisfactory evidence that such adjustments should be made.

The age of an Employee, or any other relevant facts, may be found to have been misstated. If premiums are affected due to this, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made. If such misstatement involves whether or not an insurance risk would have been accepted by Us, or the amount of insurance, the true facts will be used to determine whether insurance is in force under the terms of this Policy, and in what amount.

But, if the Employee joins any armed force before this period ends, You may continue his or her insurance until the date he or she becomes a member of such armed force.

Any such continuation is subject to the payment of premiums and to all of the other terms and conditions of this Policy.

An Employee's Right to Continue Life Insurance Coverage During A Family Leave of Absence

Important Notice: This section may not apply to Your Policy. The Employee must contact You to find out if You must allow for a family leave of absence under federal law. If You must allow for such leave, this section applies.

If Coverage Would End: An Employee's Life Insurance coverage would normally end because he or she ceases work due to an approved leave of absence. But, an Employee may continue coverage if the leave has been granted to: (1) allow an Employee to care for a seriously injured or ill spouse, child or parent; (2) after the birth or adoption of a child; (3) due to an Employee's own serious health condition; or (4) because of a serious Injury or illness arising out of the fact that an Employee's spouse, child, parent or next of kin who is a covered service member is on active duty, or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty, in the Armed Forces in support of a contingency operation. To continue an Employee's coverage, he or she will be required to pay the same share of the premium as paid before the leave of absence.

When Continuation Ends: Continued coverage will end on the earliest of the following:

- The date an Employee returns to Active Work.
- In the case of a leave granted to an Employee to care for a covered service member, the end of a total leave period of 26 weeks in one 12 month period. This 26 week total leave period applies to all leaves granted to an Employee under this section for all reasons. If an Employee takes an additional leave of absence in a subsequent 12 month period, continued coverage will cease at the end of a total leave period of 12 weeks.
- In any other case, the end of a total leave period of 12 weeks in any 12 month period.
- The date on which the Employer Plan is terminated or an Employee is no longer eligible for coverage under this Policy.

- The end of the period for which premium has been paid.

COMPUTATION OF GROUP LIFE INSURANCE PREMIUMS

How Group Life Insurance Rates Are Computed

We will use the mortality rates and factors in Our rate manual, subject to Our rating methods, to compute the premium charges for group Life Insurance. We can change rates as stated in Premiums.

When this Policy starts, We will compute a preliminary monthly rate. We do this by: (1) multiplying the individual rates by the amounts of insurance in force at the respective ages, nearest birthday, of all Employees; and (2) dividing the result by the total amount of insurance in force. We will use the characteristics of Your group and Our rating methods to modify such preliminary rate and compute Your final premium rate.

We may also compute Your final premium rate by any other method agreed to by You and Us which produces approximately the same total premium.

Monthly Premiums: If You pay monthly premiums, each monthly payment will be equal to the product of the total amount of Life Insurance in force on the premium's due date and the monthly rate in effect for each Employee.

Annual, Semi-Annual, Or Quarterly Premiums: If You pay annual, semi-annual, or quarterly premiums, We will compute the applicable rate by multiplying the monthly premiums by: (1) 11.823 for annual premiums; (2) 5.956 for semi-annual premiums; or (3) 2.985 for quarterly premiums.

Employee Contributions: Employee contributions that You require for the cost of this insurance may not vary solely by sex.

When Rates Can Be Changed: We or You may require rate changes: (1) on each Policy Anniversary after the effective date of this Policy; or (2) on any date on which the rate manual is changed.

This Policy will be incontestable after two years from its Policy Date, except for non-payment of premiums.

This Policy may replace the group policy of another insurer. In that case, We may rescind this Policy based on misrepresentations made in Your or a Covered Person's signed application for up to two years from the Policy Date.

After a person's insurance has been in force under this Policy for two years during his or her lifetime, no statement in any application made by him or her will be used:

- to contest the validity of his or her insurance; or
- to deny a claim for a loss incurred by him or her.

In the event a Covered Person's insurance is rescinded due to a fraudulent statement made in his or her application We will refund premiums paid for the periods such insurance is void. The premium paid by the Covered Person will be sent to his or her last known address on file with You or Us. If You pay all or part of the cost of a Covered Person's insurance Your part of the premium will be paid to You.

Associated Companies

An associated company is a business entity affiliated with You through common ownership of stock or assets.

If You ask Us in writing to include such a company under this Policy, We will treat Employees of that company like Your Employees. We must give Our written approval. Our approval will show the starting date of the company's coverage under this Policy. Each eligible Employee of that company must still meet all of the terms and conditions of this Policy before he or she will be insured.

You must notify Us in writing when a company ceases to be an associated company. On the date a company ceases to be such a company, this Policy will end for all of that company's Employees, except those covered by You or another associated company as Employees on such date.

Premiums

Premiums are payable by You as follows:

- The first premium is due on the Policy Date; and
- Later premiums are, during the time this Policy remains in force, due on the 1st of each month.

Premiums due under this Policy must be paid by You:

- At a Guardian office; or
- To a representative that We have authorized.

The premiums must be paid as shown above, unless by agreement between You and Us, the interval of payment is changed. In that event, adjustment will be made for payment annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

The premium due under this Policy on each due date will be the sum of the premium charges for the insurance provided under this Policy. The premium charges are based on the rates set forth in the Schedule Of Premium Rates.

We may change such rates:

- On the first day of any Policy month;
- On any date the extent or terms of coverage for You are changed by amendment of this Policy;
- On any date Our obligation under this Policy with respect to You is changed because of statutory or other regulatory requirements; or
- On any date that a change in federal or state laws, insurance programs or retirement benefits would impact our liability.

We must give You 31 days written notice of the rate change. Such change will apply to any premium due on and after the effective date of the change stated in such notice.

Adjustment Of Premiums Payable Other Than Monthly Or Quarterly

A premium rate may be changed after an annual or semi-annual premium became payable with respect to insurance on and after the date of such change. In that case, the premium will be adjusted by a pro rata change for the rest of the period for which the premium became payable. If the adjustment results in a decrease, the amount of the decrease will be paid to You by Us. If the adjustment results in an increase, the amount of the increase will be considered a premium due on the date of the rate change. This Policy's grace period will apply to any such premium due.

P030.0890

A grace period of 31 days, without interest charge, will be allowed for each premium payment except the first. If You give Us advance written notice of an earlier termination date during the grace period, this Policy will end as of such earlier date.

If this Policy ends during or at the end of the grace period, You will still owe Us premium for all the time this Policy was in force during the grace period.

This Policy ends on any date when a coverage under this Policy ends and, as a result, no benefits remain in effect under this Policy.

Clerical Error - Misstatements Of Age

Neither clerical error by You or Us in keeping any records on the insurance under this Policy, nor delays in making entries, will invalidate insurance otherwise validly in force or continue insurance otherwise validly terminated. On discovery of such error or delay, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made.

Premium adjustments involving return of unearned premium to You will be limited to the period of 90 days before the date of Our receipt of satisfactory evidence that such adjustments should be made.

The age of an Employee, or any other relevant facts, may be found to have been misstated. If premiums are affected due to this, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made. If such misstatement involves whether or not an insurance risk would have been accepted by Us, or the amount of insurance, the true facts will be used to determine whether insurance is in force under the terms of this Policy, and in what amount.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Incontestability

This Policy will be incontestable after two years from its Policy Date, except for non-payment of premiums.

No statement in any application, except a fraudulent statement, made by a Covered Employee will be used to contest the validity of his or her insurance or to deny a claim for a loss incurred, or for a disability which starts, after his or her insurance has been in force for two years during his or her lifetime.

No statement made by any person insured under the Policy relating to his or her insurability shall be used in contesting the validity of the insurance with respect to which such statement was made:

- After the insurance has been in force, prior to the contest, for a period of two years during the lifetime of the person about whom the statement was made; and
- Unless the statement is contained in a written instrument signed by him or her.

This Policy may replace the group policy of another insurer. In that case, We may rescind this Policy based on misrepresentations made in Your or a Covered Employee's signed application for up to two years from the Policy Date.

In the event a Covered Employee's insurance is rescinded due to a fraudulent statement made in his or her application, We will refund premiums paid for the periods such insurance is void. The premium paid by the Covered Employee will be sent to his or her last known address on file with You or Us. If You pay all or part of the cost of a Covered Employee's insurance Your part of the premium will be paid to You.

Each Eligible Employee of that company must still meet all of the terms and conditions of this Policy before he or she will be insured.

You must notify Us in writing when a company ceases to be an associated company. On the date a company ceases to be such a company, this Policy will end for all of that company's Employees, except those covered by You or another associated company as Employees on such date.

We may change such rates:

- On the first day of any Policy month;
- On any date the extent or terms of coverage for You are changed by amendment of this Policy; or
- On any date Our obligation under this Policy with respect to You is changed because of statutory or other regulatory requirements; or

A premium rate may be changed after an annual or semi-annual premium became payable with respect to insurance on and after the date of such change. In that case, the premium will be adjusted by a pro rata change for the rest of the period for which the premium became payable. If the adjustment results in a decrease, the amount of the decrease will be paid to You by Us. If the adjustment results in an increase, the amount of the increase will be considered a premium due on the date of the rate change. This Policy's grace period will apply to any such premium due.

A grace period of 31 days, without interest charge, will be allowed for each premium payment except the first. Clerical Error - Misstatements Of Age

Neither clerical error by You or Us in keeping any records on the insurance under this Policy, nor delays in making entries, will invalidate insurance otherwise validly in force or continue insurance otherwise validly terminated. Premium adjustments involving return of unearned premium to You will be limited to the period of 90 days before the date of Our receipt of satisfactory evidence that such adjustments should be made.

The age of an Employee, or any other relevant facts, may be found to have been misstated. If premiums are affected due to this, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made. Right To Continue Short Term Disability Income Coverage During A Family Leave Of Absence

Important Notice: This section may not apply to Your Policy. The Employee must contact You to find out if You must allow for a family leave of absence under federal law. If You must allow for such leave, this section applies.

If Your Coverage Would End: An Employee's Short Term Disability would normally end because an Employee ceases work due to an approved leave of absence. But, an Employee may continue coverage if the leave has been granted:

- To allow an Employee to care for a seriously injured or ill spouse, child or parent;
- After the birth or adoption of a child;
- Due to an Employee's own serious health condition; or

To continue an Employee's coverage, an Employee will be required to pay the same share of the premium as paid before the leave of absence.

When Continuation Ends: Continued coverage will end on the earliest of the following:

- The date an Employee returns to Active Work;
- In the case of a leave granted to an Employee to care for a Covered Service Member, the end of a total leave period of 26 weeks in one 12 month period. This 26 week total leave period applies to all leaves granted to an Employee under this section for all reasons. If an Employee takes an additional leave of absence in a subsequent 12 month period, continued coverage will cease at the end of a total leave period of 12 weeks;
- In any other case, the end of a total leave period of 12 weeks in any 12 month period;
- The date on which the Plan is terminated or an Employee is no longer eligible for coverage under this Policy; or
- The end of the period for which premium has been paid.

Each Eligible employee of that company must still meet all of the terms and conditions of this Policy before he or she will be insured.

Premiums

Premiums are payable by You as follows: (1) the first premium is due on the Policy Date; and (2) later premiums are, during the time this Policy remains in force, due on the the 1st of each month.

Premiums due under this Policy must be paid by You: (1) at a Guardian office; or (2) to a representative that We have authorized. The premiums must be paid as shown above, unless by agreement between You and Us, the interval of payment is changed. In that event, adjustment will be made for payment annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

The premium due under this Policy on each due date will be the sum of the premium charges for the insurance provided under this Policy. The premium charges are based on the rates set forth in the Schedule Of Premium Rates.

We may change such rates: (1) on the first day of any Policy month; (2) on any date the extent or terms of coverage for You are changed by amendment of this Policy; or (3) on any date Our obligation under this Policy with respect to You is changed because of statutory or other regulatory requirements.

We must give You 31 days written notice of the rate change. Such change will apply to any premium due on and after the effective date of the change stated in such notice.

Adjustment Of Premiums Payable Other Than Monthly Or Quarterly

A premium rate may be changed after an annual or semi-annual premium became payable with respect to insurance on and after the date of such change. In that case, the premium will be adjusted by a pro rata change for the rest of the period for which the premium became payable. If the adjustment results in a decrease, the amount of the decrease will be paid to You by Us. If the adjustment results in an increase, the amount of the increase will be considered a premium due on the date of the rate change. This Policy's grace period will apply to any such premium due.

Grace In Payment Of Premiums - Termination Of Policy

A grace period of 31 days, without interest charge, will be allowed for each premium payment except the first. If You give Us advance written notice of an earlier termination date during the grace period, this Policy will end as of such earlier date.

If this Policy ends during or at the end of the grace period, You will still owe Us premium for all the time this Policy was in force during the grace period.

This Policy ends on any date when a coverage under this Policy ends and, as a result, no benefits remain in effect under this Policy.

You may renew this Policy for a further term of one year on the first and each subsequent Policy Anniversary. All renewals are subject to the payment of premiums then due, computed as shown in Premiums.

We have the right to decline to renew this Policy, or any coverage under it, on any Policy Anniversary or premium due date, if, on that date the number of Employees is below Our minimum group size requirements.

P020.1081

You may cancel this Policy at any time by giving us 31 days advance written notice. This notice must be sent to our Home Office. You will owe Us all unpaid premiums for the period this Policy is in force. We may cancel this Policy by giving You 31 days advance written notice.

Clerical Error - Misstatements Of Age

Neither clerical error by You or Us in keeping any records on the insurance under this Policy, nor delays in making entries, will invalidate insurance otherwise validly in force or continue insurance otherwise validly terminated. On discovery of such error or delay, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made.

Premium adjustments involving return of unearned premium to You will be limited to the period of 90 days before the date of Our receipt of satisfactory evidence that such adjustments should be made.

The age of an Employee, or any other relevant facts, may be found to have been misstated. If premiums are affected due to this, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made. If such misstatement involves whether or not an insurance risk would have been accepted by Us, or the amount of insurance, the true facts will be used to determine whether insurance is in force under the terms of this Policy, and in what amount.

Statements

No statement will void the insurance under this Policy, or be used in defense of a claim unless: (1) in Your case, it is contained in the application signed by You; or (2) in the case of a Covered Person, it is contained in a written instrument signed by him or her.

All statements will be deemed representations and not warranties.

Dividends

The portion, if any, of the divisible surplus of the Guardian allocable to this Policy at each Policy Anniversary will be determined annually by Our Board of Directors. Any such dividend will be: (1) paid to You in cash; or (2) at Your option it may be applied to the reduction of the premiums then due.

If the Employees contribute toward the cost of the insurance under any other group policy issued to You by Us and the aggregate dividends under this Policy and any other such group policy or policies are in excess of Your share of the aggregate cost, such excess will be applied by You for the sole benefit of the Employees.

Payment of any dividend to You will completely discharge Our liability with respect to the dividend so paid.

Critical Illness Claims Provisions

An Employee's right to make a claim for any Critical Illness benefits provided by this Policy is governed as follows:

Notice: The Employee must send Us written notice of an injury or sickness for which a claim is being made within 20 days of the date the injury occurs or the sickness starts. This notice should include his or her name and Policy number. If the claim is being made for any other Covered Person, his or her name should also be shown.

Claim Forms: We will furnish the Employee with forms for filing proof of loss within 15 days of receipt of notice. If we do not furnish the forms on time, We will accept a written description and adequate proof of the injury or sickness that is the basis of the claim as proof of loss. The Employee must detail the nature and extent of the loss for which the claim is being made.

Proof of Loss: The Employee must send written proof of loss to Our designated office. This proof must be sent within 90 days of the end of each period for which We are liable.

Failure to provide proof within the specified time frame does not reduce or invalidate a claim if it was not reasonably possible to give such proof and the proof was provided as soon as reasonably possible.

Late Notice or Proof: We will not void or reduce the Employee's claim if he or she cannot send Us notice and proof of loss within the required time. In that case, the Employee must send Us notice and proof as soon as reasonably possible.

Payment of Benefits: The Employee must submit periodic written proof of loss as shown above. Any balance remaining unpaid at the end of Our liability will be paid as soon as We receive written proof.

We will pay all Critical Illness benefits as soon as We receive written proof of loss.

Unless otherwise required by law or regulation, We pay all Critical Illness benefits to the Employee if he or she is living. If he or she is not living, We have the right to pay all Critical Illness benefits to one of the following, the Employee's: (1) estate; (2) spouse; (3) parents; (4) children; or (5) brothers and sisters. See the section in the applicable Certificate describing Critical Illness benefits for how Critical Illness benefits are paid.

Legal Actions: No legal action against this Policy shall be brought until 60 days from the date proof of loss has been given as shown above. No legal action shall be brought against this Policy after three years from the date written proof of loss is required to be given.

Workers' Compensation: The Critical Illness benefits provided by this Policy are not in place of and do not affect requirements for coverage by Worker's Compensation.

This Policy will be incontestable after two years from its Policy Date, except for non-payment of premiums.

Associated Companies

An associated company is a business entity affiliated with You through common ownership of stock or assets.

If You ask Us in writing to include such a company under this Policy, We will treat Employees of that company like Your Employees. We must give Our written approval. Our approval will show the starting date of the company's coverage under this Policy. Each Eligible employee of that company must still meet all of the terms and conditions of this Policy before he or she will be insured.

You must notify Us in writing when a company ceases to be an associated company. On the date a company ceases to be such a company, this Policy will end for all of that company's Employees, except those covered by You or another associated company as Employees on such date.

Premiums

Premiums are payable by You as follows: (1) the first premium is due on the Policy Date; and (2) later premiums are, during the time this Policy remains in force, due the 1st of each month.

Premiums due under this Policy must be paid by You: (1) at a Guardian office; or (2) to a representative that We have authorized. The premiums must be paid as shown above, unless by agreement between You and Us, the interval of payment is changed. In that event, adjustment will be made for payment annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

The premium due under this Policy on each due date will be the sum of the premium charges for the insurance provided under this Policy. The premium charges are based on the rates set forth in the Schedule of Premium Rates.

We may change such rates: (1) on the first day of any Policy month; (2) on any date the extent or terms of coverage for You are changed by amendment of this Policy; or (3) on any date Our obligation under this Policy with respect to You is changed because of statutory or other regulatory requirements.

We must give You 31 days written notice of the rate change. Such change will apply to any premium due on and after the effective date of the change stated in such notice.

Adjustment Of Premiums Payable Other Than Monthly Or Quarterly

A premium rate may be changed after an annual or semi-annual premium became payable with respect to insurance on and after the date of such change. In that case, the premium will be adjusted by a pro rata change for the rest of the period for which the premium became payable. If the adjustment results in a decrease, the amount of the decrease will be paid to You by Us. If the adjustment results in an increase, the amount of the increase will be considered a premium due on the date of the rate change. This Policy's grace period will apply to any such premium due.

Grace In Payment Of Premiums - Termination Of Policy

A grace period of 31 days, without interest charge, will be allowed for each premium payment except the first. If You give Us advance written notice of an earlier termination date during the grace period, this Policy will end as of such earlier date.

If this Policy ends during or at the end of the grace period, You will still owe Us premium for all the time this Policy was in force during the grace period.

This Policy ends on any date when a coverage under this Policy ends and, as a result, no benefits remain in effect under this Policy.

P020.2683

Term of Policy - Renewal Privilege

This Policy is issued for a term of one year from the Policy Date shown on face page. All policy years and policy months will be calculated from the Policy Date. All periods of insurance will begin and end at 12:01 A.M. Standard Time at Your place of business.

You may renew this Policy for a further term of one year on the first and each subsequent Policy Anniversary. All renewals are subject to the payment of premiums then due, computed as shown in Premiums.

We have the right to decline to renew this Policy, or any coverage under it, on any Policy Anniversary or premium due date, if, on that date the number of Employees is below Our minimum group size requirements.

You may cancel this Policy at any time by giving us 31 days advance written notice. This notice must be sent to our Home Office. You will owe Us all unpaid premiums for the period this Policy is in force. We may cancel this Policy by giving You 31 days advance written notice.

If We amend this Policy, except upon request made by You, We must give You written notice of such change.

Clerical Error - Misstatements Of Age

Neither clerical error by You or Us in keeping any records on the insurance under this Policy, nor delays in making entries, will invalidate insurance otherwise validly in force or continue insurance otherwise validly terminated. On discovery of such error or delay, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made.

Premium adjustments involving return of unearned premium to You will be limited to the period of 60 days before the date of Our receipt of satisfactory evidence that such adjustments should be made.

The age of an Employee, or any other relevant facts, may be found to have been misstated. If premiums are affected due to this, an equitable adjustment of premiums will be made. If such misstatement involves whether or not an insurance risk would have been accepted by Us, or the amount of insurance, the true facts will be used to determine whether insurance is in force under the terms of this Policy, and in what amount.

Statements

No statement will void the insurance under this Policy, or be used in defense of a claim unless: (1) in Your case, it is contained in the application signed by You; or (2) in the case of a Covered Person, it is contained in a written instrument signed by him or her.

All statements will be deemed representations and not warranties.

Any such dividend will be: (1) paid to You in cash; or (2) at Your option it may be applied to the reduction of the premiums then due.
